

Temple Beth Emeth of Mount Sinai 2014 Fee Policy

Full Member Dues: Memberships may be paid annually in January, monthly on the first day of each month or quarterly on the first day of every 3rd month. The quarterly billing cycle will be January 1st, April 1st, July 1st, and December 1st. All dues are due on receipt. Members joining after September 1st will be billed for one quarter and will begin a regular billing cycle in January of the following year. Actual dues will vary based on the type of membership and can be viewed on the fee schedule.

Associate Member Dues: Associate member dues are to be paid in full on receipt.

Building Fund: All members are required to pay into the building fund in addition to your membership fee. This fee is $1000.00 payable at $250.00 per year over four years. This fee may be deferred for one year if no child in the religious school is within four years of Bar/Bat Mitzvah. This fee will be waived if proof is provided that a building fund has been paid in full at another synagogue.

Religious School Tuition: A deposit is required to hold a spot for your child in our religious school for the upcoming school year. Detailed information regarding deposit due dates will be sent when they are available. Tuition payments are due on receipt but may be broken up into two payments with the total balance being paid by December 31, 2014. Tuition fees may be viewed on the fee schedule. Questions about fees or billing should be directed to Alice Klein, Financial Secretary at alicemklein@hotmail.com or 631-476-9211
